The Far Hills Speaker Series - 2019

The Day Lincoln Spoke in Dayton

Date: Sunday, February 17, 2019 at 2 pm

Place: Wright Memorial Public Library, Lower Level, 1776 Far Hills Avenue

Speaker: Jim Crabtree, Lincoln Presenter and Teacher

Title: The Day Lincoln Spoke in Dayton

Description: Please join us for this special enactment of Abraham Lincoln by Jim Crabtree in full period dress, depicting Lincoln in 1859. After he delivered the speech against the expansion of slavery at the old courthouse in Dayton, the name of Lincoln was first publicly mentioned for the Presidency of the United States, and the speech was recognized as the opening salvo in what eventually became a nationwide struggle over slavery.

Length: 1 hour, plus time for questions

The Far Hills Speaker Series is sponsored by The Oakwood Historical Society and the Wright Memorial Public Library. These presentations are free and open to the public.

No reservations required.
